HEIR

TIMELESS BY DESIGN

Heir is South Africa's premier destination for authentic, one of a kind luxury handbags, with a focus on rare and hard to source pieces, including iconic Hermès Birkins, Kellys, and more. Guided by the belief that true luxury should endure, each handbag is carefully sourced from around the world, selected for its craftsmanship, rarity, and ability to hold meaning far beyond the season in which it was created. Heir does not operate on consignment.

Every piece in our collection is owned, personally sourced, inspected, and acquired, allowing us to ensure that only handbags of the finest design, condition, and provenance are offered.

This uncompromising approach to curation ensures each piece is selected not only for its beauty, but for its ability to remain relevant across generations. All pieces are available for in person viewing by appointment.

These handbags are more than accessories. They are iconic objects that carry memory and identity. To invest in a piece from Heir is to invest in excellence, something to live with, treasure, and one day pass on.
